Thank you, volunteers and host organizations!

We extend our deepest, heartfelt thanks to all volunteers and organizations for the generous gift of your time and commitment to the 2020 Community Volunteer Income Tax Program.

As the 2020 tax filing season closes, we reflect on the wonderful dedication you showed in helping your fellow Canadians. Your desire to support others in need, even as you faced your own challenges during the COVID-19 pandemic, truly shows the strength of communities across Canada.

Thanks to you, the tax clinics are a success each year. But this year in particular, you greatly helped us to overcome new challenges.

We hope that you can see the value your contribution has made during these unprecedented times and that you will continue to participate in helping Canadians file their taxes in the years to come.
